
Reading: Read each sentence two times. Use MORE INTENT the second time!

You've hit the nail on the head.

I'm feeling under the weather.

That happens once in a blue moon.

It’s raining cats and dogs!

Conversation Exercise:

Answer with INTENT!

What does it mean to “read between the lines”?

What does “saved by the bell” mean?

Name an idiom.

Bonus Reading: Read the passage two times. Use MORE INTENT the second time!

Barking up the wrong tree means pursuing the wrong idea. Hunting dogs bark at a tree they mistakenly believe their prey is hiding in. It’s an American phrase from the 19th century.

https://www.oxfordinternationalenglish.com/30-useful-english-idiomatic-expressions-their-meanings/

https://nosweatshakespeare.com/quotes/famous/barking-up-the-wrong-tree/